Re: United States v. Joseph Petillo
11-CR-791 (FB)

Dear Ms. Geddes:

As the attorney for defendant, Joseph Petillo, I write this letter pursuant to Rules 7, 12 and 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and Local Rule 16.1 in lieu of a formal motion which might unnecessarily burden the Court. In the event of a disagreement between us as to whether the defendants are entitled to a particular item, we can ask the Court to resolve the conflict.

A. Definitions

Discovery and inspection of the items described below is both reasonable and necessary to the preparation of the defense. Our request for discovery and inspection relates to items in the possession, custody, or control of the United States Attorney as well as all federal, state and city agencies or governmental and/or administrative entities over which it has sufficient control or liaison to obtain access to materials possessed by such agency or entity. With respect to those items which we request, if the United States Attorney does not have them in its possession, we ask for a statement to the effect that such items do not exist or are not in the United States Attorney's possession. If the United States Attorney is aware that a requested item exists but does not have it in its possession, then we request that the United States Attorney disclose the whereabouts of the item. As used herein, the term "document" means any tangible thing containing, reflecting or capable of reproducing or have reproduced from it, visually or orally, language, numerals or pictures, and relating or referring in any manner to the allegations of the indictment and the matters referred to therein. It is requested that the United States Attorney disclose the following:

B. Rule 16 and Other Pretrial Materials

1. The government is requested to permit the defendants and counsel to inspect and copy or photograph any relevant, written or recorded statements made by the defendants, agent or co-conspirator, or copies thereof, within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government. In this regard, counsel for the government is specifically requested to inquire of all law enforcement personnel whom he knows to have been connected with this case as well as any and all potential government witnesses or other people who have supplied information to the government whether they are aware of any written or recorded statements of the defendants, and if so, to make such statements available, forthwith, for inspection by the defendants and counsel.
2. The defendants request that the government produce the substance of any oral statement which the government intends to offer in evidence at the trial made by the defendants, agent or co-conspirators. The government is requested to conduct a conscientious effort to determine whether any individuals acting on behalf of the government are aware of any other oral statements purportedly made by the defendants or any agent or alleged co-conspirator.
3. The defendants request permission to inspect and copy or photograph any and all books, news articles, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places or copies of portions thereof, which are within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is known or by the exercise of due diligence may become known (this includes documents in the possession of a cooperating witness) to the government and which are material to the preparation of his defense or which are intended for use by the government as evidence-in-chief at the trial or were obtained from or belong to the defendants. Defense counsel seeks the right to inspect those items discoverable under Rule 16.
4. The defendants further request that the government permit him to inspect and copy or photograph any results or reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments, or copies thereof, which are within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government and which are material to the preparation of the defense or are intended for use by the government as evidence-in-chief at the trial. Your attention is respectfully directed to the fact that this provision is not triggered only with regard to such reports, etc., which the government intends to offer during its case-in-chief. Self-evidently, reports, etc., which are “material to the preparation of the defense” are also discoverable. In the event that the government is in fact in possession of reports, etc., which it does not intend to offer (or subsequently comes into possession of such reports), the government is respectfully asked to seek a ruling of the Court, ex parte if necessary, to assist in determining whether such reports are discoverable as “material to the preparation of the defense” of this case.

5. The defendants request an opportunity to inspect and copy any and all records, statements, notes of interviews, tape-recordings, alleged admissions or confessions, signed or unsigned, oral or written, which are attributed to or were taken from the defendants, all co-defendants or alleged co-conspirators which are within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or through the exercise of due diligence may become known to counsel for the government.
6. The defendants request a designation by the government of those persons it intends to call as witnesses at the trial of this indictment and the addresses of such parties. The government is specifically requested to disclose the name and address of any witness which it intends to call and which the government will seek elicit "expert" testimony from, within the meaning of the Federal Rules of Evidence. Moreover, the government is requested to disclose any reports, studies or other data which such expert will rely upon in giving his/her testimony.
7. With respect to each witness the government intends to call at trial, or any member of the immediate family of any such witness, set forth a written summary of all charges or tax proceedings which could be brought by the government (as defined) or any other law enforcement or self-regulatory agency, but which have not or may not or which the witness believes have not or may not be brought because the witness is cooperating with or has cooperated with the government, or for any other reason. Include copies of all memoranda of understanding between the government and its witnesses, whether by way of a letter of the attorney for a witness or otherwise.
8. The defendants request that the government produce a list of any exhibits it intends to use at trial which are now known to the government and that additions, if any, to said list be provided.
9. The government is requested to produce all documents and other evidence regarding drug and alcohol usage, abuse, and/or dependency by any individual the government intends to use as a witness at trial including, but not limited to, records relating to treatment of such individual in any federal, state, city, military or private drug or detoxification program.
10. The government is requested to produce all documents and other evidence regarding any physical or mental disease, disability, or disorder affecting any individual the government intends to use as a witness at trial, including, but not limited to, records of hospitalization or other treatments for such physical or mental disease, disability, or disorder.
11. The government is requested to produce all documents and other evidence regarding any polygraph examination(s) given to any individual the government intends to use as a witness at trial.

C. Brady Material

In this regard, disclose any and all records and/or information which might be helpful or useful to the defense in impeaching said person. This includes, but is not limited to, any and all records and/or information revealing prior misconduct attributable to the person. Include the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all persons who know or may know of any such favorable or exculpatory material or who may lead to persons or material which may be favorable of exculpatory. Alldredge, 498 F.2d 376, 382 (2d Cir. 1974); United States v. Coppa, 267 F.3d 132 (2d Cir. 2001); United States v. Gil, 297 F.3d 93 (2d Cir. 2002); United States v. Shvarts, 90 F. Supp. 2d 219 (E.D.N.Y. 2000) (Glasser, J.).

If the prosecution does not have copies of all indictments, complaints, informations, arrests, hearings or disciplinary actions, state the dates and places of such arrests, hearings, indictments, and informations, or disciplinary actions, the charge brought, and the disposition of those charges so far as it is know. With respect to each person the prosecution intends to call at trial, or any member of the immediate family of any such person, set forth a written summary of all charges which could be brought by the federal, or any state or local government, which have not or may not be brought because the witness is cooperating with or has cooperated with the federal, state or city governments, or for any other similar or related reason.
14. Include copies of all memoranda of understanding between the government and its witnesses, whether by way of a letter to the attorney for a witness or otherwise. Enumerate all inducements, promises, payments and witness fees by amount and date made to, and all agreements made with, all persons the prosecution intends to call as witnesses at the trial. Include all information which may bear on the credibility of any witness and all information

Provide all information which may demonstrate an inconsistency or arguable inconsistency with another statement made by another person or that person; and all information which may demonstrate a lack of knowledge or denial of knowledge by a witness about the facts of this case or the guilt or innocence of the defendants. The law is well settled that it is not for the prosecutor to decide what material is exculpatory or what material falls within the purview of Brady. Accordingly, we ask that any information which may arguably fall within the aforementioned categories is to be disclosed to counsel for the defendants.
17. The defendants request the opportunity to inspect and copy any and all documents, memoranda, agreements, contracts, etc., which relate to promises of leniency, or agreements of immunity, either de facto or statutory immunity (inter alia, 18 U.S.C. §§ 6001, et seq.), which concern any person or business entity which are, in any way, connected to this case and which are within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which known, or through the exercise of due diligence, may become known to counsel for the government.

The defendants request that the government disclose any and all actions, promises or efforts – formal or informal – on the part of the government, its agents and representatives to aid, assist or obtain benefits of any kind for any person whom the prosecution considers a potential witness at trial, or a member of the immediate family of such witness, or for the corporation, partnership, unincorporated association or business employing such potential witness or in which the witness is an employee, director, shareholder, trustee, partner member, agent or servant. This request includes, but is not limited to (a) letters to anyone informing the recipient of the witness' cooperation; (b) recommendations concerning federal or state aid or benefits or tax matters; (c) recommendations concerning licensing, certification or registration; (d) promises to take affirmative action to help the status of the witness in a profession, business or employment or promises not to jeopardize such status; (e) aid or efforts in securing or maintaining the business or employment or promises not to jeopardize such status; (f) aid or efforts concerning a new identity for the witness and his family, together with all other actions incidental thereto; (g) direct payments of money or subsidies to the witness or his or her family; or (h) any other activities, efforts or promises similar in kind or related to the items listed in (a) through (g) above.
